

a dog's life

can only be completely happy and useful so long as his health remains good.

But constant good health cannot be guaranteed while the vital facts about so many canine diseases remain obscure

The ANIMAL HEALTH TRUST tries constantly to unmask these facts by prevention and treatment.

By assisting veterinary surgeons to conduct special investigations, and by developing a Specialist Small Animals Hospital, the Trust is in the forefront of work for your pet.

Please help to speed up this great work by becoming a regular subscriber to the canine funds or help in kind. Dog books and magazines and any saleable articles are urgently needed for our stall which appears at most of the Shows
