A DOG'S LIFE

cannot be completely happy and useful while so many facts about canine diseases remain obscure

The Small Animals Centre of the ANIMAL HEALTH TRUST is ceaselessly at work seeking new knowledge to fight the diseases that cause so much animal suffering.

A new laboratory block and hospital wing have just been completed, but more funds are urgently needed for this humane and necessary work to continue and expand.

If you are concerned for the welfare of your dog please help us and send a donation large or small to:
