

Southern Afghan Club Championship Show 2nd December 2007 I was looking forward to my judging appointment and was not disappointed I had lovely hounds to go over and I was very pleased with my final line up. I would like to thank my stewards who helped the day go smoothly and to all the owners who brought their dogs under me. Bitches Minor Puppy:5) 1. Adams Zandahar Treacle Tart 9 month old Gold brindle well grown youngster who stood out in this class, has all the makings of an outstanding adult, feminine head and expression, good angulation for and aft, well ribbed sound mover and has correct tail set unfortunately has no ring which is why for me she lost out to her brother for BP it was that close, should have a bright future .2 Tanner Palamedees Shalishan 7 month Bl/gold giving away a lot in age another nice youngster made along finer lines than the winner, but well put together with sound movement and has all the essential breed attributes. 3 Webster and Lloyd Arratrabella Stormy Desire.

Puppy:(2)1 Z Treacle Tart. . 2 Brown Palamedees Shahdinah 7 month Bl/gold feminine bitch good outline but who looked very raw along side the winner at this stage, has to gain confidence but is a promising youngster well made throughout, and much more my type than her sister that the owner showed in the previous class, hope she gives her more time.

Veteran 7 to 10 years:(7) 1 Dann Ch Amudarya Shubad gold brindle well known champion still looking good although by some standards still only a youngster moved well with her coat as usual put down to perfection. 2)Ryall Valkor a Kinda Magic at Ritzina b/m gold hounder than the winner but well made throughout and moving out well, just didn't keep her topline as firm as the winner. 3.Lewis & Collingwood CH Nanak Freecloud Firenze Veteran 10 years and over:3) 1 Witham Ch Cloudside Love Games Bl& Brindle 11 year old wearing her years very well still moves like a true hound, and has the haughty expression the afghan does so well which gave her the edge for BV. 2.Turley Sashkan Elorac Girl B/cream beligning her years in the way she behaved on the move thoroughly enjoying her time in the ring. Won her place with better topline and ring tail over third. 3.Collye/Collier-Todd Kharisar Coquet.

Junior:(11) A class of varying types and sizes, some that I thought stood out on looking round were disappointing on the move and had to pay the price.1.Jimellree Molly Maquire b/m gold Stunning youngster who stood out on entering the ring lovely head & expression good angulation fore and aft well ribbed back correct length of loin needs to body up but that will come with maturity, moved out with correct extension & drive, a little loose in front but again this is down to age. 2. Stainsby Cloudside Match Maid B/gold made along smaller lines than the winner much the same comments apply as regard confirmation although perhaps a little longer cast moved well. 3.Coton Valkor Dare to Stare.

Yearling:(4) 1.Beanland & Parsell Ch Nightwind No Woman No Cry b/m gold very mature for age and has already made quite an impact on the show scene, pleasing head and expression well placed shoulders and return of upper arm level topline has good spring of rib and depth her huge coat with is put down to perfection but I would like more muscle tone, moved with great style in the class but in the challenge in the large ring I felt she flagged. 2. Hughes Gezancol

Dolly Daydream b/m gold nice head & expression unlucky to meet the winner well made youngster has the correct fore and aft angulation well sprung ribs just felt that the winner had the edge on movement in this class today. 3. Moorey Gezancol Whoopsie Daisy.

Maiden:(6) 1. J Molly Maquire. 2. Edwards Valkor Pardon me Boys 3. Ohmke & Edwards Valkor the Heat is On

Novice:(5) 1. J Molly Maquire. 2. V Dare to Stare. 3. V the Heat is On Graduate:(4) 1. G Whoopsie Daisy b/m gold very feminine bitch who came third behind her sister in yearling mainly because her handler does not pay attention to her and make sure that she is settled before coming into the ring, she has the confirmation to move well as she proved in this class and deserved to win. 2. Day Khorinyas Galena JW B/M gold good head & eye, level topline well ribbed with good depth of chest well angulated in lovely hard condition beautifully presented, just did not move with the drive of 1. 3. Hatch Mashala Shaadi.

Brood Bitch with Progeny:(1) Edwards Kazdanabad in Kahoots such a shame this class is not better supported as it is always nice to see the whole litter together, and these youngsters left no one in any doubt that they were litter mates like peas in a pod all well grown and in good coat and condition, looked lovely moving round together.

Post Graduate:(6) 1. Gosling & Gosling Kabella Love is Blue JW very feminine lovely blue bitch that I know very well as I own her sister pleased to see that she had her happy head on today and moved well, has the correct balanced confirmation throughout that her sire seems to stamp on much of his progeny and to complete the picture she has all important ring tail, just feel that in the challenge she can look bored with the proceedings and failed to shine. 2. Turly & Jones Sashkan Caroles Destiny well balanced bl/cream a lovely feminine little bitch who both dog and handler needs to gain confidence has good angulation which does not need to be over extended as all this does is ruin her topline, well sprung ribs level topline when the handler leaves her to it, moved well, I hope they persevere practice makes perfect. 3. Morgan Sashkan Dancing Queen at Suranda.

Mid Limit :(9) Very strong class. 1. Greenfield Neliapilan Jaakarimorsian bl/cream new one to me very feminine head long neck into good shoulder placement & upper arm, well ribbed with sweeping quarters moved with drive she is not flashy but her conformation and arrogance makes her difficult to overlook unlucky to come up against the ticket winner on such good form but I am sure her future is assured RCC. 2. Simpson & Fitzgerald Freecloud Limoneta Lovely b/m cream who pushed the winner hard and could easily change places, is of different type to winner but beautifully put together & one that reminded me so much of one of my own, just felt she did not give quite so much on the move as the winner. 3. Floyd Hubshe Uzume.

Limit:(11) Another strong class. 1. Gilbert Firos Neave JW Stunning b/m gold who stood out from a strong contingent of lovely bitches I new where she came from as soon as I looked into her eyes, she is beautifully made of correct proportions without exaggeration maturing into a lovely bitch who has the best quality coat I have felt in a long time “she does not get that from her father”, my only criticism is that she would benefit from being in harder condition but this can be rectified and certainly did not stop her from moving out with great style and drive, I had no hesitation in awarding her the CC, lost to the dog for BIS on the referees decision.2.Floyd Hubshe Izanami Bl/gold another quality bitch who I considered for the reserve ticket beautiful head & eye long neck into well placed shoulder & upper arm good depth and spring of rib correct length of loin into sweeping quarters, moved well but as opposed to my winner she is carrying too much weight but her owner is only too aware of this and it is being addressed.3.Day Khamis She’s Korinyas JW.

Open :(8) 1.Gosling & Gosling Miamarner I’ll Fly for You bl/cream lovely head & eye good front & hind angulation well sprung ribs with good depth a very close decision between these two quality bitches different in type to each other and although I would like more of this bitch I felt she had the better fall away than the second moved well. 2.Witham Ch Cloudside living it Up feminine brindle very worthy champion and as I said a close call between these two this bitch always moves with great drive and today was no exception. 3.Ryall Metawan Wiscasset JW SH CM.
